- The next day they found their house and all the family was very happy together.

- The night was coming and they were looking the way to go home.

- Ana was 13 and Pedro 8.

- Once upon a time there was a family who lived in a small house into the forest.

- One day the children went for a walk, they were playing, singing and running and they arrived to a beautiful river.

- The members of the family were the father, the mother and two children, Ana and Pedro.

- The children were lost and afraid, they listened noises of many animals and they got sleep near a big tree.
